

HYDROTHERAPY: INTRODUCTORY COURSE

Half-day accredited course

This half-day theory and practical introductory course is designed for Exercise science professionals working with clients in the aquatic therapy environment.

Topics include:

History; Physics; Physiology; Chemistry; Benefits; Exercise principles and prescription; Progression; Equipment; Techniques; Management; Screening; Precautions; Safety; Staffing; Outcome measures; Documentation

Michael Warburton is a Physiotherapist and Accredited Exercise Scientist and is the Principal of Gateway Physiotherapy. He has 25-years experience providing hydrotherapy services to a wide range of client groups including chronic diseases, musculoskeletal conditions, complex disabilities and sports.

Michael is a member of APA, ESSA, ASCA and the National Physiotherapy aquatic group

Michael Warburton
Physiotherapist and Accredited Exercise Scientist